

The Rotherfield Players Newsletter

July 2018

Under Kate Organ's direction, rehearsals are going well for this exciting, open-air production of Wycherley's The Country Wife. This bawdy Restoration comedy looks set to be funny, lively and colourful. Musical director Anna Thompson is taking the cast through their singing routines of songs of the time. It is a show not to be missed.

There is an early booking discount if you get your tickets before 9th July, when tickets will be £11 and £9 for concessions. After that they will be £12 and £10 respectively. They may be bought either on-line (see The Rotherfield Players' website) or from the Courtyard café.

Not on holiday in the middle of August? Come and enjoy this evening of dramatic fun – exercise your thespian skills. We hope that this will be the first of many workshops so do give it a go. Casual clothing is advised.

Daniel Shaw can give you more information, so do contact him if you wish to know more.

Childe Roland, our Junior autumn production, is well into rehearsal under the directorship of Sarah Truelove. It will be a show to really show off our Junior talent.

Future productions

Pantomime:- Barry Shyvers is going to direct Snow White, which will give acting opportunities for adult and junior members.

Spring production:- Derek Holland is to direct a comedy about an amateur dramatic group – A Bunch of Amateurs- by Ian Hislop and Nick Newman.

Outdoor production: Sandra Barfield is to direct this – probably an Agatha Christie who-done-it. Title to be confirmed.
