

The Rotherfield Players Newsletter March 2018

Rehearsals are going really well for our Spring production, J.B. Priestley's Dangerous Corner. Taking place on 12th -14th April in Rotherfield Village Hall, this thought provoking play is highly Entertaining, so do make sure that you buy your tickets in good time. There will be a cafe style layout round tables. Tickets cost £11 with £9 concessions.

For the first time tickets will be on sale on line via Ticket Source. Go to The Rotherfield Players' web site to book your seats with your credit/debit card. Alternatively you may get your tickets in person at the Rotherfield St. Martin office in the Memorial Institute. They are not on sale in the Village Stores.

Kate Organ is well on the way with her planning for The Country Wife. This is our Open Air production to be performed in Rotherfield and Lurgashall at the end of July and beginning of August. There is to be a help night on Friday 27th April at 7.30 in the Village Hall and auditions will be held on Sunday 29th April in the Memorial Institute between 11.00am and 4.00 pm. Audition pieces + details can be found on the Rotherfield Players website.

Attention all juniors

– there is to be a Junior production the Autumn this year. Sarah Truelove is going to direct this for the Junior Players in conjunction with her Stage Door Drama School. The play is a comic tale of legendary England – Childe Roland by Ron Nicol. It is the story of Guinevere whose daughter is captured by the Elfin King – and things go wrong!!! There is a cast of 24 plus chorus. Rehearsals will be on Saturdays and auditions will take place in May - date to be confirmed, as have the October performance dates. So watch this space.

Are any of you interested in going on theatrical themed activities, such as a tour backstage at the National Theatre, play readings, workshops etc. If so please let our secretary, Ros Williams know (rosjwilliams@gmail.com). If a sufficient number of people are interested we can set about organising some activities.
