

From: James Findlater [mailto:jamesanddeb@ridgewaymayfield.wanadoo.co.uk]
Sent: 21 May 2007 21:53
To: james@gallifant1353.fsnet.co.uk
Subject: Godspell

My wife, Deb and I, came along to last Saturday's production of Godspell. As fellow actors (Past-chairman and Secretary of The Phoenix Theatre Company in Mayfield), we just had to drop you a note of congratulations.

We genuinely thought the show as superb. The singing, acting and choreography were all spot on. The show was full of energy and the cast acted like they were truly enjoying themselves. All this combined with lots of comedy balanced with lots of pathos.

Full marks to the chorus and the principals alike and a special mention for Jesus who was magnificent in the part. (He had Deb crying at one point).

Let us not forget the musicians who complemented the show admirably. Even although we sat near them at no time were they obtrusive (surely the sign of a good band).

In summary they say 'nothing is perfect' but as amateur shows go you could not have got much closer. You have 'set the bar' locally. It is a pity you could not have taken the production further afield.

Very Well Done to all concerned.

Best Wishes
James and Deb

Dear All,

Mike and I wholeheartedly agree with all the comments below, we were blown away by the show. It was amazing.

With my treasurers hat on I can't believe people got to see such an amazing show for 7 quid!!!!

To everyone involved, what a triumph of teamwork. Many congratulations.

Louise and Mike

x